SHORT ESSAY QUESTIONS (Please attach a separate sheet of paper for these responses.)

1. In no more than 2 paragraphs, please state why you would like to teach at Agia Sophia Academy.
2. In the space below give a brief account of your Christian Experience. Please include your involvement in your Church.
3. Agia Sophia Academy seeks to teach students “how to learn” as well as “what to learn.” How would you plan to meet this goal in your teaching?

Love & Logic Discipline

At ASA, we see each student as one who bears the image of God, and one who therefore is a unique individual with unique personal, social, and educational needs. As a result, every disciplinary situation becomes unique in nature. Consequences for misbehavior provide the best learning value when matched to the unique student and the unique situation. The odds for children learning from their mistakes increase dramatically when children see a reasonable connection between their behavior and the resulting consequences. We have chosen the Love & Logic teachings as our school wide discipline guidelines.

Identify the Principles that Guide Your Disciplinary Decisions

Below is a list of common beliefs about discipline. Please identify (circle) five or six that most accurately describe the principles YOU HOLD regarding discipline and working with students. Feel free to change some of the wording to better reflect your style.

- 1) I believe that every attempt should be made to maintain the dignity of both the adult and the student.
- 2) I believe that students should know that misbehavior makes adults angry.
- 3) I believe that students should know that misbehavior results in loss of privileges.
- 4) I believe that adults should be respected because they are the adults.
- 5) I believe that students should be guided and expected to solve the problems they create without making problems for anyone else.
- 6) I believe that students should expect rewards for good behavior.
- 7) I believe that students should be given the opportunity to make decisions and live with the results, whether the consequences are good or bad.
- 8) I believe that misbehavior should be handled with natural consequences instead of punishments whenever possible.
- 9) I believe that students should know that the adults are the bosses and in control at all times.
- 10) I believe that students should have the opportunity to tell their side of the story (due process hearing) when consequences appear to be unfair.
- 11) I believe that teachers are responsible for raising student self-esteem.
- 12) I believe that school problems should be handled by school personnel and that criminal activity should be referred to the proper authorities.
- 13) I believe that misbehavior should be viewed as an opportunity for individual problem solving and preparation for the real world as opposed to a personal attack on the school or staff.
- 14) I believe that students should pay for repeat misbehaviors.
- 15) I believe that it is best if a student does most of the thinking.
- 16) I believe that there should be a logical connection between misbehavior and resulting consequences.
- 17) I believe that it is the administrator's job to make students behave so that teachers can teach.
- 18) I believe that parents should punish their children when they misbehave at school.
- 19) I believe that prescribed punishments for rules infractions are an important part of maintaining discipline.
- 20) I believe that every student and every rules infraction should be treated the same way.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And, in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all ages. Light of Light; True God of True God; begotten, not created, of one essence with the Father, through whom all things were made. Who for us and for our salvation, came down from heaven and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and He suffered and was buried. On the third day He rose according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. His Kingdom will have no end.

And, in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father, who together with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, and who spoke through the prophets.

In one holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I expect the resurrection of the dead. And the life of the age to come.

Amen.

I agree to uphold and live by the teachings and tenets of the Orthodox Christian Church as expressed in the above Creed.
